

How to prepare for the exam in 3 days

All students are familiar with the problem, the word "session". Having an endless list of questions and minimum days of training, the student is simply lost. Often he wakes up in the instinct "it is impossible to read" and the word "test" is bold point. How to overcome uncertainty in the forces and effectively training for the exam? With the help of simple tips, you can efficiently learn the material and pass the exam "excellent".

The material is grouped according to the principle "question-answer"

Once collected the whole material (which is preferably done in advance), we sort it according to the scheme "question-answer". Our goal is to put all on the shelves, and for this, everything has to be systematized in this way. Remove all the excess, leaving only the most important. If the subject is very complex, in the Treasury is more meaningful material. Agree, now is not the time for in-depth study and understanding of complex scientific processes. Time is limited, a lot of questions, and the student alone. Let us assess your opportunity.

Draw up a training plan

For any business it is important to plan your time for maximum detail. After planning, you must clearly abide by it. So there you go…

The night before my first day of training. Night after passing the previous exam (or three days before the date of the first) read half the questions. Read without breaking a sweat, reluctantly scribbling pen, coloring marker, but read to the end! Reading at night will have a positive effect, adhere to the goal to affordable essay writing service master the first half.

On the first day. In the morning sit down and read storm in the night questions. Absorb visually, muttering under his breath, most focusing prescribed schenochki yourself, draw pictures, make up funny Association, building logical chains, etc. Memory and attention have to work to the fullest! At night we read the second half.

The second day. Accepted for the second half with no less enthusiasm. Backed by the strength of coffee, don't forget to eat well. If you still have the strength, then at night, viewed most complex issues with the entire list, if not the strength – it is better to go to sleep, the worst is over!

Day three. First, we read poorly remembered questions, the most unpleasant, but do not forget that the last day and kill the whole day on the debilitating issues are not output. The goal – to drive, to read all the questions and absorb the fact that you somehow missed or forgotten.

The day of the exam. Try not to be nervous, everything is done at its best, the material is developed at 100%, and in two, and some three times! Good mood, confidence, the maximum concentration, measured speech and all you get!
